HEAD COACH GIOVANNI SAVARESE

In his first season with the club, Giovanni Savarese led the Timbers to 15 regular-season wins in 2018, tied for the third-most victories for a first-year head coach in MLS history. Under Savarese's guidance, the Timbers won their second Western Conference Championship and advanced to their second MLS Cup in 2018. Registering 18 wins overall including an impressive playoff run, Savarese became one of three head coaches since 2000 to register 18 or more wins, including playoffs, in their first year as a head coach in the league. He also became just the second head coach in the last 14 seasons to advance to MLS Cup in his first year in MLS.

Appointed as the Timbers' head coach on Dec. 18, 2017, Savarese brings over 25 years of professional experience as a player and coach to the Timbers organization.

A native of Caracas, Venezuela, Savarese joined the Timbers after spending the previous five seasons as the head coach and sporting director of the New York Cosmos, where he developed one of the most successful clubs in the NASL, compiling a 65-26-44 record in 135 regular-season games, including a career-best 20-7-5 record in 2016 and an undefeated NASL Spring Season in 2015. Additionally, the Cosmos scored 223 goals during Savarese's five seasons at the helm, which rank as the most in the NASL during that stretch. Savarese also led the Cosmos to four Soccer Bowl appearances, claiming the 2013, 2015 and 2016 championships. Most recently, after a 10-7-15 record in the 2017 regular season, Savarese guided the Cosmos to their third straight appearance in the NASL championship match, narrowly falling 2-0 to the San Francisco Deltas.

Prior to joining the Cosmos organization, Savarese, who holds a USSF "A" license, served as the head of youth development for the New York MetroStars/Red Bulls from 2005-2007, before joining the Cosmos as the club's academy director in 2010, with a focus on developing youth talent in the greater New York area. Savarese served as the Cosmos academy director for two years before being announced as the head coach of the first Cosmos team in 28 years on November 19, 2012.

Savarese enjoyed an 18-year professional playing career, including five seasons in Major League Soccer, scoring 159 goals in 322 games played in various leagues in the United States, Venezuela, Italy and England. At the international level, Savarese earned 30 caps for the Venezuela National Team from 1989-2001, scoring 10 goals, including a notable finish against South American rival Argentina in 1996.

After beginning his professional career in Venezuela with Deportivo Italia in 1986, Savarese spent five seasons (1990-95) playing in the Cosmopolitan Soccer League and the USISL before being drafted by the MetroStars in the inaugural MLS SuperDraft in 1996 as the ninth overall selection, notching a team-record 41 goals and 94 points in 85 regular-season appearances during three seasons with the club. The striker's record stood until 2009 when it was surpassed by Juan Pablo Angel.

Following his three seasons with the MetroStars, Savarese spent the 1999 MLS campaign with the New England Revolution, scoring 10 goals in 27 appearances. Shortly afterwards, Savarese joined Italian Serie A club A.C. Perugia and was loaned to A.S. Viterbese in 2000, before returning stateside to join the San Jose Earthquakes in the 2000 MLS season. After a brief stint with the Earthquakes, Savarese joined Swansea City, where he scored 14 goals across all competitions, prior to signing with Millwall F.C. in 2001. Following short spells with Venezuelan club Deportivo Italchacao and Italian club Sassari Torres, Savarese's playing career concluded in 2004 after scoring five goals in 10 appearances with the Long Island Rough Riders.

In the collegiate ranks, Savarese enjoyed a four-year (1990-93) playing career with Long Island University after moving to the United States from Venezuela in 1990. Savarese has also served as a member of the media, working as an analyst for ESPN International and ESPN Deportes.

Giovanni and his wife, Michelle, have two daughters, Valentina and Alessandra.

PREVIOUS MATCH - PORTLAND TIMBERS AT FC DALLAS - W 1-0

MATCH RECAP

Receiving a goal late in the first half from Brian Fernandez, the Portland Timbers registered a 1-0 win over FC Dallas in front of 25,218 fans at Providence Park on June 30. With the goal, Fernandez broke the MLS record for consecutive games with a goal to start an MLS career by scoring in his fifth straight league match.

Key plays

On the counter-attack, Diego Valeri played the ball out wide on the right side to Jorge Moreira, who delivered a cross into the center of the box. Fernandez laid the ball off for Valeri, who fired a shot toward the bottom left corner of the goal that was blocked out for a corner kick in the 29th minute.

In the 37th minute, Portland continued to keep the pressure on FC Dallas near the edge of their box. Cristhian Paredes pounced on the ball as it got away from Paxton Pomykal, running into the box and sending a shot just wide of the left post.

The Timbers took the lead in the 42nd minute as Fernandez scored his ninth goal in all competitions. On the break, Blanco dribbled down the right side of the field and played a diagonal ball to Fernandez running to the edge of the box and he unleashed a side-footed strike into the top, right corner of the goal.

Valeri nearly doubled the Timbers lead in the 51st minute on a free kick. Lining up the attempt from just outside the top of the box, Valeri sent a curling shot inside the left post, but FC Dallas goalkeeper Jesse González dove to his right at full stretch to push the ball wide of the post.

Just one minute later, Jeremy Ebobisse made a late run into the box to get on the end of a diagonal ball played to the right post from the left wing by Blanco, but Ebobisse's one-touch shot went just wide of target.

Combining down the left side of the field in the 88th minute, Blanco played the ball to Valeri inside the box on the left wing. Valeri received the ball and cut back to the middle, attempting to place his shot into the right bottom corner of the goal, but FC Dallas' Matt Hedges made a diving play to block the shot.

NOTES

- Brian Fernandez scored in his fifth consecutive league appearance to begin his Timbers career, setting an MLS record for the most consecutive games with a goal to begin an MLS career.
- Fernandez has scored in all seven of his matches for Portland, including the U.S. Open Cup. He has nine goals in those seven matches.
- Fernandez is the third player in MLS this season to score goals in five consecutive matches, joining Carlos Vela and Zlatan Ibrahimovic.
- Sebastián Blanco delivered his seventh assist of the season in the match, which is tied for sixth-most in MLS in 2019. Blanco now has 26 assists for his Timbers career.
- The Timbers are the only team in MLS with multiple players who have tallied seven or more assists this season (Diego Valeri – 10).
- Portland is 6-3-1 over its last 10 league matches and 8-3-1 across all competitions, with a two wins in U.S. Open Cup play.
- With the win, Portland improved to 6-1-3 all-time at home against FC Dallas.
- Steve Clark recorded his third consecutive shutout in all competitions.
- Dating back to last season, Jeremy Ebobisse has now played in 34 consecutive matches for Portland.

NOTABLE QUOTES

Portland Timbers head coach Giovanni Savarese

General thoughts after the win at home over FC Dallas...

"First of all, it was important to get a win. These three points were huge for us. We knew that a win today would put us in a better situation in the table, and I thought we had some very good moments. In the first half, we had control of the game. When we came into the second half, we came with a lot of intensity. We pressured well and we won the ball constantly. We just needed to be a little bit more simple inside the box to get the second goal that would have given us more tranquility. We left the game at 1-0 and at some point in the second half, I think after the 75th minute, [FC Dallas] were difficult. They went at us. We weren't keeping the ball. We were giving the ball away, but still we had a few good moments. We suffered at the end, but overall a well-deserved win and a lot of sacrifice from the guys to make sure that we got these three points."

On Brian Fernandez setting an MLS record for the most consecutive matches with a goal scored to begin his career...

"We said it from the beginning that he's a competitor. He's hungry, he wants to score and he wants to help the team. Not only does he score for himself, he wants to be important for the team and that's why he runs the way he does, sacrificing for every ball. In every situation, he wants to make a difference and he's been great. He wouldn't achieve this without the other guys around, but today they did a good job to make sure we got a win that we needed at home and we didn't give up a goal. Credit to Dallas, they were pretty good, especially by playing a game last Thursday. It was important for us to get this victory."

On Diego Chara's performance tonight ...

"I think this was his best performance since I've been here. I think today he brought the level of play a lot higher. He defended in a way with sacrifice, with quality, being smart and offensively he was the one that started a lot of the counter attacks. Chara is very important for us and he was incredible today."

MATCH PREVIEW

The Timbers will play their 15th road match of the 2019 season across all competitions, when the team travels to face New York City FC on Sunday, July 7. Beginning at 3:30 p.m. (Pacific), the match against New York will feature a national television broadcast on FS1 with local radio broadcasts on 102.9 and 750 The Game (English) and La Grand 1150AM/93.5 FM (Spanish). Entering Sunday's contest, the Timbers are coming off a 1-0 home win over FC Dallas at Providence Park, their third consecutive win in all competitions at Providence Park. After scoring Portland's lone goal in the 43rd minute, Brian Fernandez broke the MLS record for consecutive games with a goal to start an MLS career by scoring in his fifth straight league match. Fernandez has scored in all seven of his matches for Portland, including the U.S. Open Cup. Fernandez has nine goals in those seven matches. New York City FC (7-1-8, 29pts) enters Sunday's match following a 3-0 win over Seattle Sounders FC at Yankee Stadium on July 3, which extended a 12-game unbeaten run dating back to a 0-0 draw against the Montreal Impact on April 6. In eight home matches during the 2019 MLS campaign, New York is undefeated, holding a record of 4-0-4. In 14 league appearances in 2019, Maximiliano Morales, who scored in the win against Seattle, ranks tied for first in MLS with 11 assists. Morales and Héber rank tied for first on the team with six goals scored, while goalkeeper Sean Johnson has registered 24 saves and six shutouts this campaign.

SCOUTING NEW YORK CITY

Entering Sunday's match, New York City FC (7-1-8, 29pts) is coming off a 3-0 victory against Seattle Sounders FC at Yankee Stadium on July 3, which extended a 12-match unbeaten run in league play dating back to April 6. In eight home games during the 2019 MLS campaign, NYCFC is undefeated, posting a record of 4-0-4. In 11 league appearances this season, forward Héber ranks tied for first on the team with six goals scored, while midfielder Maximiliano Moralez is tied for the league-lead with 11 assists in 2019. Goalkeeper Sean Johnson has logged six shutouts and 24 saves in 13 league appearances.

HISTORIC RUN FROM FERNANDEZ

With his game-winning goal in a 1-0 victory over FC Dallas on June 30, Brian Fernandez set a new MLS record by scoring in his fifth consecutive match to begin his Timbers career. Fernandez now has tallied a goal in seven consecutive appearances across all competitions, recording nine goals total between league play (6) and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup (3). Fernandez is the first player in MLS history to score goals in each of his first seven matches over all competitions since entering the league. Additionally, Fernandez is the first Timbers player, across all eras, to score in his first seven matches for the club.

TIMBERS VS. NYCFC AT YANKEE STADIUM

Sunday's match marks the third meeting in MLS regular-season play at Yankee Stadium between the Timbers and New York City FC, with Portland holding a 2-0-0 record dating back to April 19, 2015. In his only appearance at Yankee Stadium, Diego Valeri scored the game-winning goal in a 1-0 win on Sept. 9, 2017.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Portland Timbers fielded 10 players aged 25 years or younger against the Montreal Impact at Stade Saputo on June 26. Additionally, the average age of the Timbers starting lineup against the Impact was 24 years old. Modou Jadama (25) made his first career MLS start, while Julio Cascante (25) made his seventh start of the campaign. Marco Farfan (20) made his first league start of the season, while Renzo Zambrano (24) logged his third start in league play. Marvin Loria (22) tallied an assist in his second straight appearance since making his MLS debut against the Houston Dynamo on June 22. Eryk Williamson (22) logged 76 minutes in his first career MLS start. Jeremy Ebobisse (22) made his third appearance off the bench in 2019, while Cristhian Paredes (21) earned his ninth MLS start. Tomás Conechny (21) tallied his first MLS goal against Montreal, while Foster Langsdorf (23) made his second career MLS appearance, seeing the field as a second-half substitute.

HEADED GOALS

The Timbers rank tied for second in the league in headed goals (7) following Tomás Conechny's headed finish against the Montreal Impact on June 26. Brian Fernandez headed in the opening goal in a 3-1 win over the Philadelphia Union on May 25. Forward Jeremy Ebobisse logged his second headed goal of the season, the game-winner, in a 2-1 win at Toronto FC on April 27. Defender Larrys Mabilia tallied a headed goal in a 3-1 win against Columbus Crew SC on April 20. Midfielder Cristhian Paredes notched a headed goal against FC Dallas on April 13. Ebobisse tallied a headed goal against Los Angeles FC on March 10, while midfielder Sebastián Blanco scored the club's first headed goal in the season opener in a 3-3 draw at Dick's Sporting Goods Park against the Colorado Rapids on March 2.

TIMBERS INJURY REPORT

LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP RUN

With a 4-0 shutout victory over the LA Galaxy at Providence Park on June 19, the Timbers advanced to the quarterfinal round of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup for a second consecutive season. Brian Fernandez scored a goal in the Open Cup in the win against the Galaxy, bringing his goal tally to three in Open Cup competition. Fernandez scored two goals in Portland's 2-1 win against Seattle Sounders FC in the fourth round at Cheney Stadium on June 12. The Timbers will travel to face Los Angeles FC at Banc of California Stadium in the quarterfinal round of the U.S. Open Cup on Wednesday, July 10, beginning at 7:30 p.m. (Pacific).

CHARA NAMED TO 2019 MLS ALL-STAR ROSTER

Major League Soccer announced on June 24 that Portland Timbers midfielder Diego Chara was named to the 26-man roster for the 2019 MLS All-Star Game presented by Target. Making his MLS debut on April 23, 2011, no other player in the league has more regular-season starts with one club (243), and no MLS player has recorded more tackles (859) and tackles won (682) in regular-season play than Chara during that span.

70/70 CLUB

With his one goal and three assist performance against the Houston Dynamo on June 22, Diego Valeri now has 72 goals and 75 assists for the Timbers in regular-season play. Valeri is just the ninth player in MLS history to record at least 70 goals and 70 assists. He is the only active player in the league and the first player who debuted in MLS after the 2001 season to reach this mark. Valeri joins Landon Donovan, Steve Ralston, Preki, Jaime Moreno, Cobi Jones, Dwayne De Rosario, Jason Kreis and Jeff Cunningham as the only players to reach the 70 goals and 70 assists mark in regular-season competition.

CONVERTING FROM SET-PIECES

Following Tomás Conechny's headed finish from Marvin Loria's free-kick service against the Montreal Impact on June 26, the Portland Timbers rank tied for second in MLS with the LA Galaxy for goals scored from set plays (5). Since the start of the 2016 regular season, the Timbers rank tied for first in the league with the New York Red Bulls for goals from set plays (39). Midfielder Diego Valeri ranks tied for first in the league with Colorado Rapids midfielder Jack Price with four assists from set plays.

TIMBERS RUN OF FORM

After their 1-0 win over FC Dallas at Providence Park on June 30, the Timbers improved to 6-3-1 over their last 10 MLS matches dating back to April 20. During that stretch, the Timbers rank second in the Western Conference in goals scored (19) behind only the San Jose Earthquakes (22). The Timbers' six wins during that span ranks tied with the Earthquakes for the most in the Western Conference. Additionally, Portland's 11 goals allowed during that time frame ranks tied for the second-fewest goals allowed in the Western Conference.

T2 ON THE RISE

Playing their third game in eight days, the Timbers' USL Championship affiliate, T2 (6-4-6, 24pts), are coming off a 4-2 loss to Phoenix Rising FC on June 29. T2 sit in fourth place in the Western Conference standings, eight points behind first-place Phoenix. Several first-team players have played on loan for T2 this season, including midfielder Eryk Williamson, who ranks tied for second in the USL Championship with seven assists in 10 appearances. Midfielder Dairon Asprilla, leads the team with six goals in six appearances this season. Forward Foster Langsdorf and defender Modou Jadama rank tied for third on the team with four goals scored. Williamson has tallied three goals this campaign, while midfielder Marvin Loria has scored two goals in eight USL Championship appearances in 2019. Additionally, midfielder Renzo Zambrano has one assist in eight appearances in 2019.
