

PROVIDENCE PARK FAN EXPERIENCE GUIDELINES

We are committed to creating a safe, comfortable, and enjoyable event-day experience for all fans visiting our stadium and facilities. We are also deeply committed to fostering an inclusive environment, free of discrimination and harassment. These guidelines address conduct that is inconsistent with these goals and detracts from the match-day experience.

Any person at the stadium or any parking lot, facility, or area that we own or control must observe these guidelines. “We,” “us,” and “our” in these guidelines refers to Peregrine Sports LLC. MLS matches are also subject to the MLS Fan Code of Conduct.

Do not:

- engage in conduct that is illegal or enter or remain on property we own or control for unlawful purposes;
- interfere with the free passage of event participants in public areas by deliberately obstructing or blocking aisles, walkways, or other areas commonly used for public access or egress;
- engage in conduct that results in damage to the venue or other personal property, including, but not limited to, taking, defacing, degrading, damaging, or destroying any property (e.g., depositing trash, spitting, painting, cutting, urinating, or defecating upon any property). Do not enter or attempt to enter the field, the field track, the tunnel or any other location not intended for public enjoyment and access (e.g., storage units, concession stands, locker rooms or other back of house areas) other than that permitted by your ticket or credential;
- throw objects of any kind, including streamers;
- behave in an unruly, disruptive, threatening or violent manner, including verbal or physical harassment of match officials, players, staff, or fans;
- display signs, symbols, or images, use language, or make gestures that are threatening, abusive, or discriminatory, including on the basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, gender, gender identity, ability, and/or sexual orientation;
- display signs, symbols or images for commercial purposes or for electioneering, campaigning or advocating for or against any candidate, political party, legislative issue, or government action;
- engage in any behavior that otherwise targets other fans or interferes with other fans’ enjoyment of the game;
- use materials, equipment, furniture, fixtures, or other type of personal property belonging to us or our participants or vendors, in a manner inconsistent with the customary use thereof; or in a destructive, abusive, or potentially damaging manner; or in a manner likely to cause person injury to you or others;
- possess alcohol not purchased through stadium concessions;
- irresponsibly use or consume alcohol or other substances;
- use bicycles, skateboards, in-line skates, rollerblades, or other human powered forms of accelerated propulsion without our specific permission for the purpose of providing operational services to the event. This rule does not apply to wheelchair-type devices that are designed to assist disabled persons;
- solicit, sell, and/or disseminate of information without our prior written authorization;

- post, place, or distribute handbills, flyers, or posters of any kind without our prior written authorization, except on the designated poles on the plazas. Do not make unauthorized transmissions or play-by-play accounts of the match;
- fail to follow requests from stadium staff regarding stadium operations, policies and emergency response procedures
- use the facilities for housing or camping, including but not limited to sleeping, bathing, or food preparation without our prior written authorization;
- possess any unauthorized pyrotechnic device, smoke or firework or other Prohibited Items*
- engage in sexual conduct as defined by ORS 167.060, including but not limited to, the physical manipulation or touching of a person's sex organs through a person's clothing in an act of apparent sexual stimulation or gratification;
- smoke in the stadium, including via a vape pen or other e-cigarette device; or
- vend items, food or otherwise, without our prior written consent.

In addition, you must:

- promptly return a ball that enters the stands;
- wear shoes, shirt, and pants (skirt, shorts, etc.); and
- maintain personal hygiene and clothing cleanliness that complies with commonly acceptable social standards as judged by a reasonable individual.

VIOLATION OF THESE FAN EXPERIENCE GUIDELINES

We reserve the right to immediately expel and/or exclude any person who violates these guidelines. Any person who violates any of these provisions may be subject to penalty, including, but not limited to, ejection without refund, loss of ticket privileges for future games and revocation of annual memberships. Any fan who (1) conducts themselves in an extremely disruptive or dangerous manner (including, but are not limited to, violent behavior, threatening, abusive or discriminatory conduct or language, trespassing or throwing objects onto the field, use or possession of unauthorized pyrotechnics or other dangerous Prohibited Items, or illegal conduct), or (2) commits multiple violations during a 12-month period, may be banned from attending future events for up to a year or longer. Depending on the nature and severity of the violation, individuals who violate these guidelines may be required to submit a written request for readmission and participate in an online class in order to be reinstated. We reserve the right to refuse entry to anyone who has engaged in harassment of event officials, event participants, opposing team members, staff or other fans or who have otherwise violated these guidelines using social or digital media or other forms of communication.
