

I am driving and will be parking. How can I make it easy?

Are you sure? Parking can be difficult and Providence Park is well-served by other options. Explore the alternatives and incentives.

If you do drive, don't circle! On-street parking is hard to find, more expensive on game days, and limited to two hours right by Providence Park.

Head directly to a downtown SmartPark or private garage. There are thousands of spaces within a close walk or MAX ride to Providence Park. Plus, Timbers annual members can opt in for a special SmartPark rate.

Find an off-street parking space - there are plenty! Many public and private lots and garages are within a 15-minute walk of Providence Park. They love Timbers and Thorns fans!

I want to take transit! What should I do?

Take it on the Timbers! Annual Members can opt in for a special, reduced rate.

Take MAX and get off right at Providence Park or connect easily to downtown parking and restaurants.

Don't live on a MAX line? We got you covered with numerous bus lines that also serve the stadium.

PnR
Park-and-ride at one of dozens of MAX stations across the region.

We've got extra trains after the game, but be prepared to wait. Why not first celebrate the win at a local pub or restaurant?

I want to bike or walk! What should I do?

Free bike parking is located right at Providence Park on SW Morrison. Don't worry, we'll watch your bike during the game!

Bike parking can get full during certain games. Plan to arrive early or park a block or two away on those sunny summer days.

For many, walking is the best way to go. Providence Park is close to downtown and many local gathering spots for Timbers or Thorns fans.

Safety is key! Providence Park and the City of Portland work hard to make it as safe as possible, but take extra caution on game days and always look out for yourself and fellow supporters.

I'm going to get a Lyft or other ride share service! What should I do?

Look out for promotions that can save you time and money.

Make it easy for you and your driver! Go to a designated pick up and drop off zone conveniently located around Providence Park.

Be safe and courteous! Don't get out in the middle of the street, and respect the neighbors.

Need more help? No worries.
